

IMPACT

ASMCF/SSFH Postgraduate Study Day

Saturday 2nd March 2013

Wolfson Research Exchange, University of Warwick Library

University of Warwick

9.30-10 am Registration and coffee

10.00 am Welcome Professor Máire Cross (Newcastle), Hon. President, ASMCF

10.15 am Professional development session 1: Making an impact—publications, job applications and impact for postgraduates in French.

1. Dr Chris Reynolds (Nottingham Trent), Reviews Editor, Modern & Contemporary France,
How to write a good book review
2. Dr Penny Roberts (Warwick), Editor, French History,
Getting published in an academic journal
3. Dr Jonathan Lewis (Portsmouth),
Getting your first academic job
4. Dr Andrew Smith (QMUL/Chichester),
Impact for postgraduates in French

11.30 am Comfort break

11.40 am Professional development session 2: Researching France and the francophone world.

1. Teresa Vernon (French Collections Curator, British Library),

Making use of the British Library's French Collection

2. Joanna Warson (Portsmouth),

Using 'modern' French archives

3. Linda Briggs (Warwick),

Using Early Modern French archives

12.30 pm Lunch

1.30 pm Keynote address: Professor Tony Chafer (Portsmouth), Impact in practice: working with the FCO on African policy.

2.15 pm PG research panel 1: Historical impact.

1. Jacob Zobikw (Hull),

'Strategies of Laughter in the National Convention, 1792-1793'

2. Mason Norton (Edge Hill),

'History versus Memory: The Impact of the Resistance in Haute-Normandie'

3. Ellen Dew (Newcastle),

'Writing a history of Madeleine Rebérioux: the problem of approach'

3.30 pm Coffee

3.45 pm PG research panel 2: Cultural impact.

1. Charlotte Faucher (QMUL),

'Denis Saurrat's influence on the Institut Français du Royaume-Uni (IFRU) during the interwar period'

2. Saskia Huc-Hepher (Westminster),

'Hitting Home: the Multifaceted Impact of the London French Project'

4.30 pm Concluding remarks and thanks